REMODELING ...

The former library building, "new" in 1926, has been replaced by the latest addition to Manchester's growing campus. The old building is being remodeled to house the speech, theatre and audio-visual departments.

NEW ORIENTATION PROGRAMS

Before the academic year begins, the freshmen endure orientation and the faculty members attend "workshop." By the time school starts, all newcomers should be well acquainted with each other and with Manchester College.

RAY M. PETERSIME

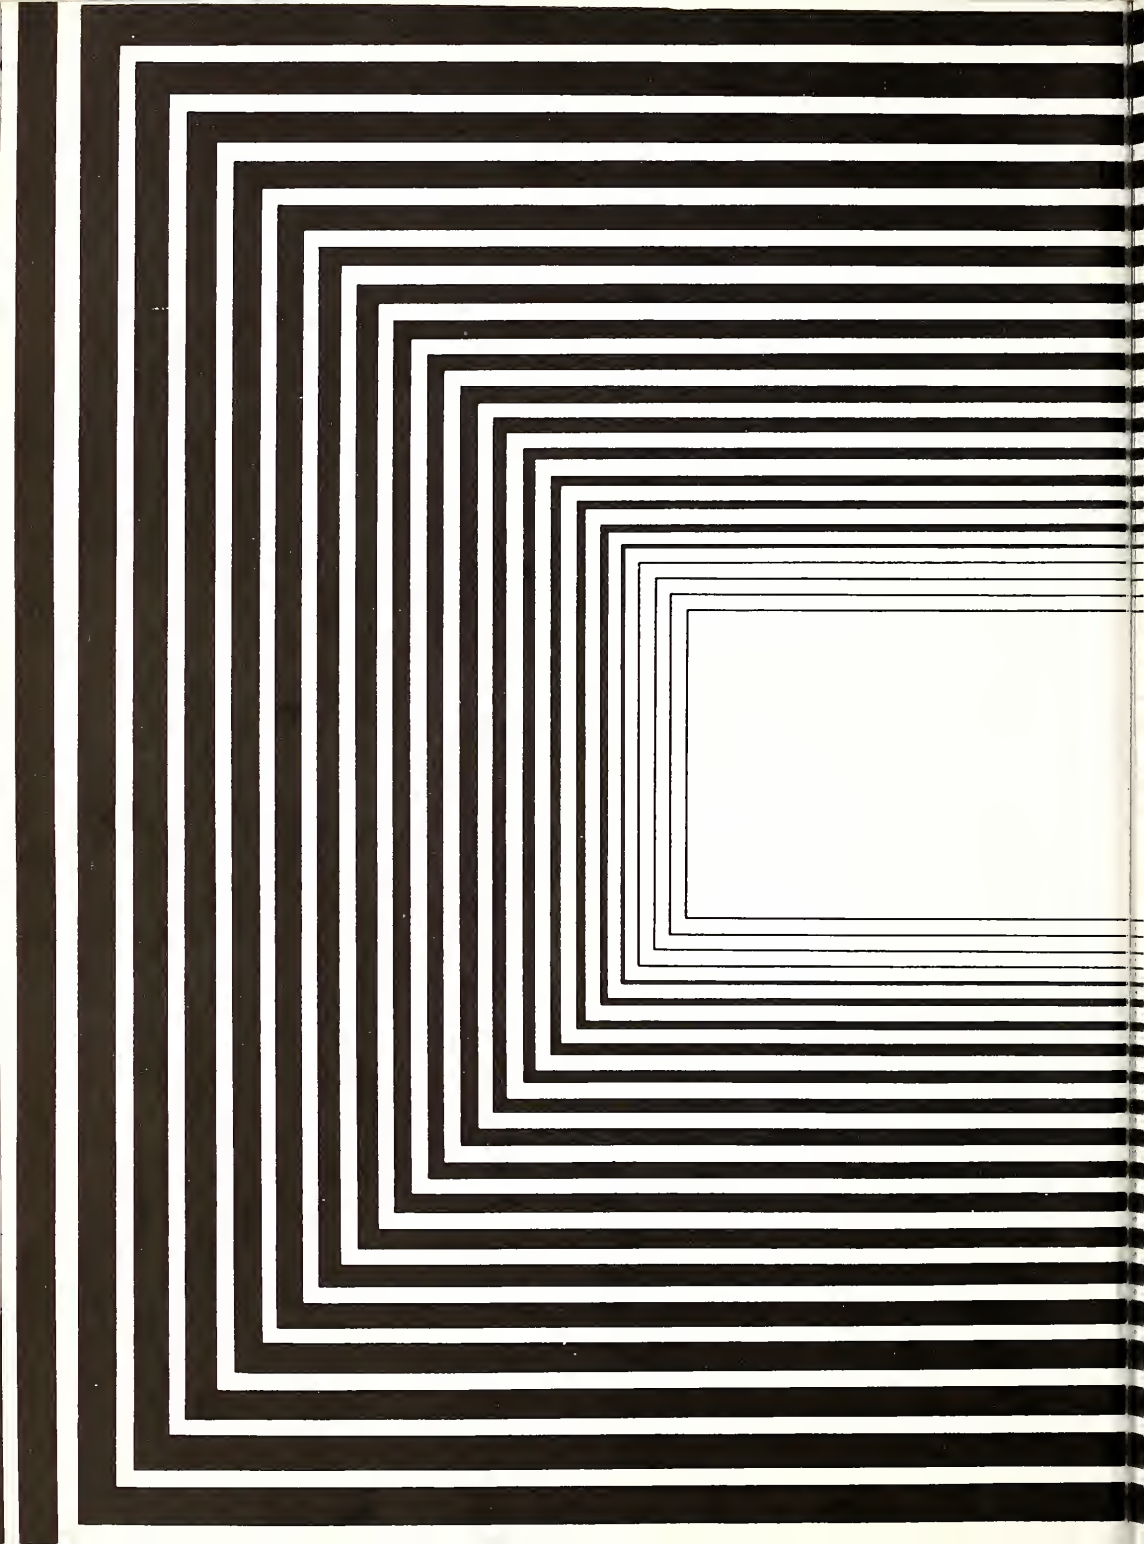

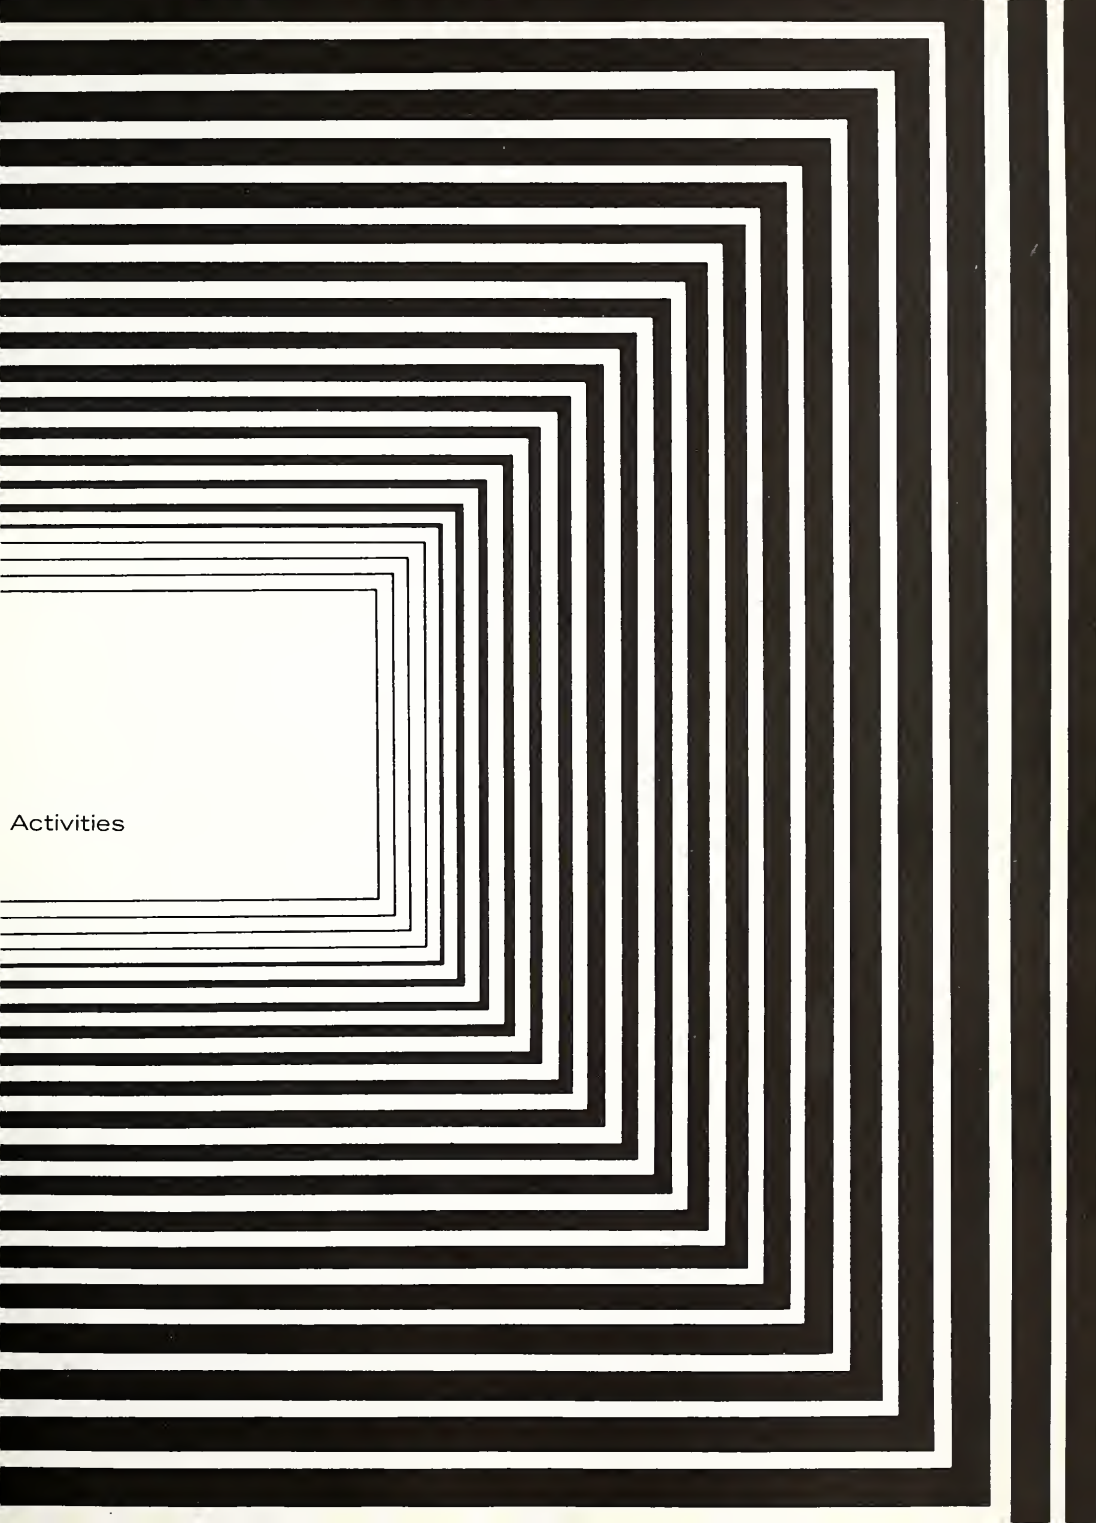

IN MEMORIAM

"Ray M. Petersime served as a trustee of Manchester College for almost four decades. He gave unselfishly of his time, talents, and resources during his long tenure on the Board of Trustees.

The Petersime Chapel, a product of his dreams and generosity, stands as a beautiful testimony of his interest and concerns in Christian higher education. With his passing Manchester College has lost one of her most enthusiastic and loyal friends."

HOMECOMING PLAY "ABE LINCOLN IN ILLINOIS"

The portentuous years preceding the Civil War and Lincoln's critical election to the presidency provide the background. Between the present and the past arises a glowing affirmation of the American faith in the worth of the common man and in the value of a homespun conscience.

National Players

Manchester College is continuing to bring excellence in comedy, dancing, poetry, and music to the campus and the community through their Public Program Series.

WINTER PLAY

This play interpreted Rome's persecution of the Christians as political rather than religious. The emperor was not opposed to the Christian religion as such, but that he could not tolerate a propaganda that seemed to threaten the interests involved in the established law and order. The Christian religion was revolutionary and the emperor's security was endangered by a popular doctrine that did not respect the customs of the state. It was a test of political tolerance.

Besides the bicycle race and mini-trike race, students participated in a tug-of-war across the Kenapocomoco River with the freshmen defeating the sophomores, and East Hall girls winning over Oakwood girls. After the parade on Saturday, Carolyn Dinsmore was crowned Queen of the May. A baseball game and a track meet were held in the afternoon. The Manchester College A Cappella Choir is a selected ensemble of forty-one voices which has traditionally maintained a high standard of excellence in choice of literature and in performance. It presents both sacred and secular concerts in churches, in schools, and on the college campus. The choir, under the direction of Dr. Clyde W. Holsinger, head of the music department, seeks to expose to its listeners, the finest in musical programs and in musical experience.

HCC CO-CHAMPIONS

Standing with HCC "Coach of the Year" Jack Jarrett, are four of the five men who were named all-conference in the HCC and NAIA this season. Left to right are Jim Andrews, Tim Dubois, Steve Hazelwood, and Don Blair.

This year found the Spartans, led by their able coaching staff, posting a 5-4 season record, something that had not been accomplished for 27 years prior. Bettering that feat, the Spartans claimed the co-championship of the HCC, a never-before received award. Leading the way for the Greeks was Jim Andrews who gained 667 yards in 189 carries. Close behind was freshman Robin Gratz tallying 600 yards in 131 attempts. Senior Pat Hodges was third as he gained 230 yards in 61 tries. In the passing department, Bacun connected 431 percent of his passes by hitting his receivers 47 of 109 attempts. Brian Moore led the pass receiving area as he caught 26 for 300 yards. Hodges was second with 17 catches gaining 190 yards. Andrews led all scorers with 10 TD's for 60 points. Gratz had 7 TD's and 2 PAT's for 44 points.

"Coach of the Year" Jack Jarrett

Manchester's coaching staff, Coaches Wolfe, Jarrett and Gratz, look over some scouting reports in preparation for the coming game.

Defensively, the Spartans also compiled some good statistics. Mike Baker, freshman linebacker, led the defensive team with 52 tackles and 75 assists totaling 179 points. Dewayne Busbee was second with 42 tackles and 59 assists for 143 points. All-conference Rod Songer placed third with 142 points on 51 tackles and 40 assists. Not far behind was another all-HCC man Tim Dubois, with 51 tackles and 37 assists for 139 total points. The defense as a whole ranked nationally in the top three in the pass defense department, a fine achievement indeed. Jim Stack picked off 5 passes to take first place in the interceptions. Songer was second with 2, followed by Jim Mustard who also had two interceptions, along with Don Harmon, also an HCC member. Hazelwood, Keaffaber, Howard, Stack, and Harmon all blocked punts during the season. Mike Baker and Keaffaber each recovered 3 fumbles to lead the team. Prospects were good for another championship next year also.

Pat Hodges (above) really gets airborne as he dives for more yardage in the Franklin game. MC trounced the Grizzlies 27-14.

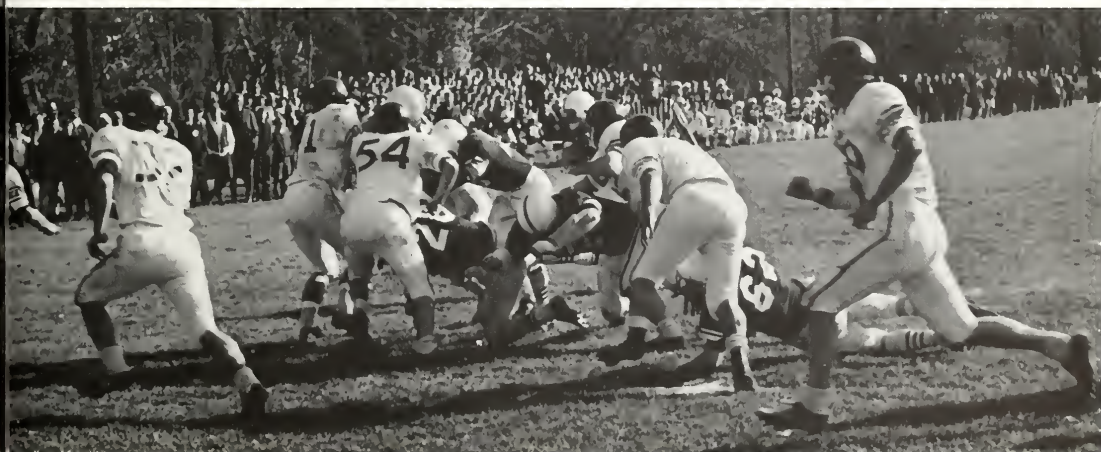

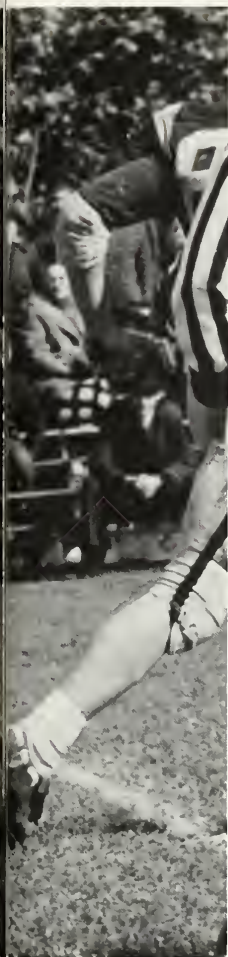

What is a football game without cheerleaders adding color to the game? Here Sharon and Kay seem to be planning a yell that will encourage the fighting Spartans.

Manchester's defense was one of the strong points of the team this year. Here they show how to contain the opponent as they display the art of lateral pursuit.

WRESTLING

An escape is in the making for MC freshman, Jack Vineyard, who along with the other freshmen, shows great prospect for the future.

This year, Coach Gratz had a fine group of young grapplers. Next year should see a fine prospect for a good season as there are only four upperclassmen on the entire wrestling squad. The Spartans managed to put a 3-5-1 season record even though they were up against some very strong competition. Those who had previous experience were: Bob Gaier, Don Harmon, Larry Buck, and Ray Sweet.

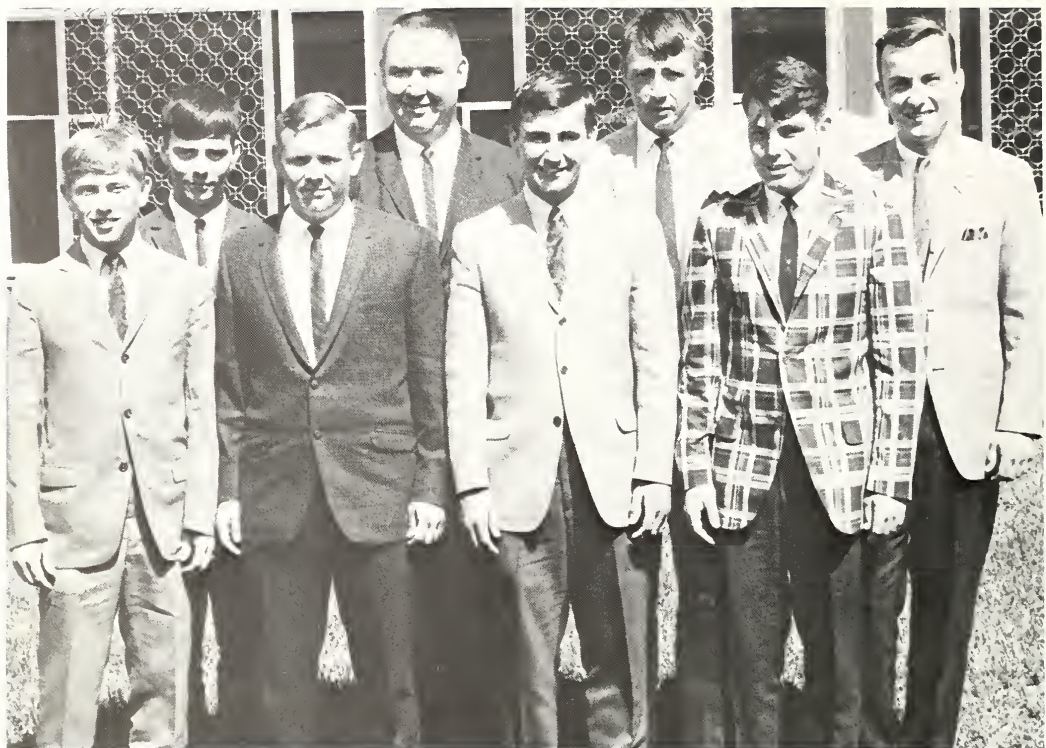

Mighty mite, Bob Gaier, receives two points for a reversal on his opponent from Wabash, whom he later defeated.

Herb Bayer, a consistent victor in the 145 lb. class, works on his opposition from Kalamazoo.

Bob Miller was Manchester's high medalist for the year posting an average of 75.5 per match. Dave Garver was second with a 79.5 tally. The number three man was Jerry Schleigher with an 81.3 average. Jerry Myers and Gordon Miller were the number four and five men on the team with scores of 82.0 and 83.2 respectively.

This year the Spartans turned in a respectable 15-10 season record and a 7-5 conference tally. The Spartans had a perfect home season, never losing a game on the home court. Unfortunately, the away record was not as good. The team still managed to put together a fine season.

BASKETBALL

The Spartans did a fine job against a team that was rated as third in the nation. MC battled Indiana State and finally had to go home with a mere 6 point loss. MC's Joe Phillips, and Dick Harris showed All-Americans Butch Wade and Jerry Newsom they were playing for keeps as Dick collected 31 and Joe 14. The Sycamores were able to down the Greeks by the score of 71-65, but not without a struggle.

This year the Spartans were led by the state's leading scorer, Dick Harris as he collected 725 pts. in 25 games for a 29 pt. average. Joe Phillips was next with 566 points in 25 games for 22.8 average. Steve Brewer and Don Egley were next with 237 and 234 total points respectively. Harris was the team's high rebounder with 403 and Joe was second grabbing 246. Steve Brewer and Don Egley again were third and fourth getting 138 and 125 each.

JUNIOR VARSITY

Coach Hoffman's junior Spartans spent most of the year trying to find the winning combination. Toward the latter portion of the season they began to function as a team and not a group of individuals. They faced some pretty stiff competition during the course of the season, and perhaps their record doesn't show the quality of their play. Leading the Spartans in the scoring department was Jerry Morningstar, who collected 223 points in 15 games for a 14.9 per game average. Following him in the scoring to give MC a 6-9 season record was Dave Rich with 212 points for a 14.1 average. Phil Krieg and Steve Carr were fourth and fifth for the season as they contributed 157 and 132 points respectively for averages of 10.4 and 8.8 each. In the rebounding area of the team, Phil Krieg led all as he grabbed 143 rebounds off the boards. Steve Carr was second with 97, and Ray Stults was third as he pulled 77 rebounds from the opponents.

The image features a series of concentric rectangles that create a strong sense of depth and perspective, resembling a tunnel or a series of nested frames. The rectangles are composed of alternating black and white lines, with the black lines being slightly thicker than the white ones. The rectangles are centered and expand outwards from a small white square in the middle-left area. The overall effect is a high-contrast, geometric pattern that draws the eye towards the center.

Publications

Editor Lisa Bitler makes another one of the many calls necessary for organizing the production of a yearbook.

Due to injuries received in an automobile accident early in the school year, Karin Crain was not able to continue as Aurora Editor. Junior Lisa Bitler was then selected by the Publications Committee as the new Editor. During Christmas vacation Lisa was sent to Kansas City to consult with the Inter-Collegiate Press representative. She brought back many new ideas for yearbook improvement, including the use of large action pictures and methods of new layouts. Since the majority of the staff members were volunteers, it was necessary to have a training session and to establish regular meeting nights. There were four remaining deadlines to be met, and the entire staff worked hard to complete the 176 pages. During the week of March 9 the final pages of the book were mailed.

AURORA

Aurora advisors, Mr. James Garber and Mr. Gene Fahs, proudly prepare to mail the pages comprising one of the deadlines. Both advisors are very cooperative when the staff needs help.

Checking the receipt book is routine for Business Manager Rufus King as he sells pages to the various organizations on campus.

Considering possibilities for future issues of the Oak Leaves are Editor Anne Pence and Faculty Advisor Herbert Ingraham.

The Oak Leaves, Manchester's official college newspaper, is published Thursday each week during the school year except the week during and after term end and holiday vacations. This year the paper has featured the cartoon "Terry" which is done by Charles Wagner. Another feature has been a regular column "Inside Poly-Ticks" written by Don Michaelsen. Editorials and letters to the editor appear frequently. Also, more pictures have been used this year in the Oak Leaves. Besides specific staff members, students enrolled each term in Journalism write articles for the paper. The variety of articles and columns offer something of interest for each and every student.

At work in the Oak Leaves office, Rosemary Dershem plans another layout for the next issue of the school paper.

Max Laudeman, Business Manager, ponders intently over the books as he balances the Oak Leaves account.

Every Monday night finds Dorinda Berry busily typing articles for the forthcoming weekly edition.

SPECTRUM

Pointing out good and bad points of one piece of work, Dr. Garey helps Jean Lemmon learn to judge literary and art works.

Spectrum is the literary arts publication of Manchester College. The goal of Spectrum is to provide a worthwhile outlet for the prose, poetry and artwork created in the course of the students' campus life. Through the aims of the staff, Spectrum hopes to publish a part of the personality of the college campus and to share by means of literary expression the feelings and ideals of a cross section of the Manchester College Community.

JUNIOR YEAR ABROAD

A group of students from Manchester College participate each year in the Junior Year Abroad Program which gives them new insights into an old and often confusing world. The worth of this program can be seen in these young people and the people they come in contact with—with the new understanding and friendships which develop in the course of their journey not only to a new land, but to a new world in their minds and hearts.

Paul Hoover, Judy Carl, Janet Rhoades, Dennis Metzger, Dan Krall, Diana Porter, Sharon Baker, Jeannine Beery.

The image features a series of concentric rectangles that create a strong sense of depth and perspective, resembling a tunnel or a series of nested frames. The rectangles are composed of alternating black and white lines, with the black lines being slightly thicker than the white ones. The rectangles are centered and expand outwards from a small white square in the middle-left area. The overall effect is a rhythmic, geometric pattern that draws the eye towards the center.

'We are substance

Karen Crain

among shadows'

Fred Tackitt
Nov. 12, 1966

As editor of the 1967 Aurora, I would like to take this opportunity to thank all those who volunteered their assistance in producing this yearbook. In November I agreed to take Karen's place following the accident, even though I knew nothing of our yearbook operation. Deadlines came too fast and we were working furiously right up to the last minute. Without the help of many, many extras pulled in during the last few hours, this yearbook would not have been possible. For these wonderful people I am exceedingly grateful. I feel special recognition should go to all my staff, Mr. Garber, Mr. Fahs, Mr. Nelson, and numerous others who contributed their time in creating this book.
